

Double Bearing Holder

Back needs to stay straight with bearing inserted

Needs to be printed on well calibrated machines

No banding on the through-hole layers

No warping or Z wobble

All holes should fit an M3

Test for binding by inserting both bearings then sliding 10mm rod through, there should be little to no resistance

Visual check

